Tour Descriptions

SPECTACULAR SCENERY & FLAVORS

Port: Palma, Majorca, Spain

Tour Code: PMI_50

This leisure tour highlights the spectacular scenery of Majorca and offers the opportunity to taste local specialties. Leaving the port, you'll embark on a scenic drive with views of landscapes of pine forests and groves of almond and olive trees, beautiful villages and much more. There will be a couple of stops to take in the magnificent views and snap some memorable pictures. Your final destination and highlight is La Granja de Esporles surrounded by beautiful fountains and lush formal gardens. This superb 17th century Majorcan manor was built by a noble family on the site of a 10th century farm belonging to the monks. You'll have time to explore on your own the grounds and interior of the house, now a museum illustrating the home-life of two centuries ago. A highlight is the wine cellar, where you'll sample a local wine and various Majorcan products. Afterward, you'll return to your ship through the village of Esporles. Note: There is approximately 1 mile of walking on uneven surfaces and rough pathways with 35-40 steps at La Granja.

MAGICAL MAJORCA & TRAIN TO SOLLER

Port: Palma, Majorca, Spain

Tour Code: PMI_64

Discover some of the most scenic parts of Mallorca and the lovely village of Valldemossa during this picturesque ride on the Soller Railway. Depart the pier for the approximately 50-minute sightseeing drive through Palma, and on to the Son Reus Train Station. Upon arrival, board the historic Soller train. The Soller Railway has been running a daily train service along the 17-mile (27-kilometre) route between Palma de Mallorca and Soller, without interruption, since 1912. Your scenic, 45-minute journey is an enchanting voyage highlighted by beautiful panoramic views of the Mallorcan Mountains, orange groves and small, fairytale-like villages. Pass through 13 tunnels and numerous bridges before arriving at Soller. After some free time in the beautiful village of Soller, board a coach for the drive to Son Marroig. This stunning estate is renowned for its picturesque setting on the slopes of Mallorca's northern mountain range. You'll make a photo stop at a lookout which offers spectacular views of the coastline and 'Foradada', a locally-renowned rock formation rising from the sea. Leaving Son Marroig, your drive continues on through the rugged northern interior of the island en route to Valldemossa, where a visit is made to the Carthusian Monastery. This 17th-century monastery, also known as 'Cartuja', is famous for its beautiful cloisters and gardens. More importantly, it housed two illustrious guests, composer Frédéric Chopin and novelist George Sand, during the winter of 1838-39. A guided tour of the monastery includes the cloisters, the 18th-century pharmacy, the former monks' cells and the rooms once occupied by the famous couple. Following your visit, some time is made available for browsing the many shoppes at your leisure before re-boarding the coach for the approximately 30-minute drive back to the pier. Note: This tour involves a moderate amount of walking on uneven pathways, with some steps to negotiate at Soller Station and approximately 1/2 mile of walking. The train is not air-conditioned or wheelchair-accessible, and has wooden seats. The train journey is not exclusive to NCL guests.

SCENIC PALMA & VALLDEMOSSA

Port: Palma, Majorca, Spain

Tour Code: PMI_54

After departing the port, drive along the Paseo Maritimo with hotels on one side and luxurious yachts on the other. You'll pass the cathedral and the Almudaina Palace, along the way to the center of Palma through Avenida Argentina and Avenida Jaime III with its exclusive shops, and Via Roma, known as Flower Street. On the way to Valldemossa, see impressive landscapes of pine forest and groves of almond and olive trees. Valldemossa is one of the most beautiful villages of the island with a magnificent view over the valley and the capital of Palma on the horizon. A stop for a soft drink will be made in Valldemossa. Returning to Palma, you'll drive up to the Bellver Castle, and have a beautiful view overlooking the Paseo Maritimo and the town. Then, traveling through the city, you'll reach the Plaza de Toros (bull fighting ring) where you'll have free time to take some photos or to go into one of the famous pearl factories where the famous Majorca Pearls are manufactured. Here you can see how expert artisans create the man-made pearls and you'll have an opportunity to purchase some to take home. Note: Bellver Castle is not visited on this tour.

LOCAL WINES & PANORAMA

Port: Palma, Majorca, Spain

Tour Code: PMI_62

Driving along the beautiful seaside promenade, you'll enjoy the views of the marina filled with luxurious yachts on one side and hotels on the other. You'll then pass the magnificent cathedral and the Almudaina Palace going to the center of Palma through streets filled with luxurious shops, and Via Roma where the flower market is held under the shade of the plane trees. Continue on towards Santa Maria, admiring the views of the most agricultural part of the island. Your final destination is the well-known cellars of Macia Batle in the village of Santa Maria. Its 250 acres of vineyards are distributed in the denominations of the region with special emphasis on the rare autochthon Majorcan grapes, not leaving out other traditional varieties. By combining these grapes, the results are beautifully composed wines with unforgettable character. The agreeable sun and microclimate of Majorca join with the soft winds of the Mediterranean to guarantee a top quality wine, something that the Romans, keen wine makers, already knew. Discover how such wines are created and enjoy a tasting of different wines with some snacks; an experience for all your senses. Returning to Palma, you'll make a photo stop at Bellver Castle from where you'll have a beautiful view over the pier and the city. Note: This tour is not suitable for passengers with wheelchairs or those with walking difficulties as there are 40 steps into the winery.

CAVES OF HAMS & PORTO CRISTO

Port: Palma, Majorca, Spain

Tour Code: PMI_57

Visit the world-famous caves known for their delicately ramified dripstone formations, enjoy some free time at the quaint fishing village of Porto Cristo and learn how the famous Majorca pearls are made. You'll start with a scenic drive towards the east and continuing past the villages of Algaida, Montuiri, Villafranca and Manacor. Some of these villages are known for the production of man made pearls and you'll stop in one of them to visit one of the famous pearl factories. Situated near Porto Cristo are the Caves of Hams, which will be your next destination. The incomparable beauty of the caves is heightened by the artistic lighting created by Lorenzo Caldentey, son of the discoverer. Inside the caves there are several lakes and on the largest of all, the 'Sea of Venice', there are daily performances of the show 'Magical Mozart', in special tribute to the famous composer. Leaving the caves a short drive takes you to Porto Cristo, where you'll have some free time to walk around this small village or relax in a cafe and simply people watch. Note: This tour involves approximately 1 mile of walking and 100 steps in the caves.

PALMA IN DEPTH

Port: Palma, Majorca, Spain

Tour Code: PMI_52

Palma, founded by the Romans some 2,100 years ago, is full of important monuments. Drive to the Bellver Castle, passing by the Paseo Marítimo with numerous hotels on one side and luxury yachts on the other. Bellver Castle, built 650 years ago, is a magnificent Medieval fortress. Outside the ramparts, enjoy fantastic views of the city and port below from the lookout point. Then drive to the Spanish Village for a guided walk along cobblestone streets where numerous monuments and typical houses of the different regions of Spain have been reproduced. Here you might have some time to buy a souvenir or the typical artificial pearls. You'll leave with a feeling to having visited different places in Spain. Continue to the cathedral, passing by the Avenida Jaime III with its buildings of typical Majorcan architecture, Plaza Joan Carles I, Es Born Promenade. Then, visit Spain's second-largest Gothic-style cathedral with its long columns and arches creating a deep impression. Walk through the small Treasure Museum displaying ancient manuscripts, paintings and religious items. After the visit to the cathedral, you might follow your guide on a walking tour of the city center, or take some time for last minute shopping. On the way back pass the fishing harbor, city walls, the former Merchandise Exchange of La Lonja and the Consulado del Mar, which is the Balearic Government building. Note: There is approximately one mile of walking and a few steps at the various sites and up to 80 steps at the cathedral. On days that the cathedral is closed to visitors, the interior will not be visited but you'll have an explanation from the outside.

PALMA AQUARIUM & ORIENTATION

Port: Palma, Majorca, Spain

Tour Code: PMI_60

Today, the Palma Aquarium provides a fun and exciting journey of discovery down the ages. Your tour drives past the Paseo Marítimo with numerous hotels on one side and luxury yachts on the other. Your guide will point out the many highlights of this beautiful city. Palma Aquarium is a spectacular marine park that faithfully recreates sea and oceanic habitats and ecosystems. The park provides visitors with a unique and unforgettable experience: interaction, surprises and endless educational elements. The 55 aquariums contain an exceptional range of flora and fauna from the Mediterranean Sea and the Indian, Atlantic and Pacific Oceans. Here you'll find 8,000 specimens from 700 different species in approximately 1.32 million gallons (5 million liters) of seawater. Your guide will take you through some of the areas, and allow you free time to wander on your own (your guide will wait in a common area until departure time). If you want to spend some time at the beach, you'll find one approximately 985 feet (300 meters) in front of the Palma Aquarium. Your guide will give you a place and time to meet for the return to your ship. Note: If you wish to swim, please bring your swimsuit and a towel. This tour involves approximately 1/2 mile of walking and approximately 50 steps, but there are elevators available.
